Emerging Technologies and Trends in GESPC

Want In On The Action?

States, cities and schools are increasingly investing in new energy efficiency technologies as a means to lower energy, operation and maintenance costs while improving service. The programs, technologies and other tools being implemented to address community energy needs are highlighted in the first session of the afternoon (1 to 1:45pm): Emerging Technologies and Trends in GESPC.

Tom Walther, OSRAM Lighting Solutions, North America, SE Regional Sales Director, and ESC Board Member, moderates this session that includes presentations from:

Paul Bassett, Director of Water, Envocore
Alan Okimoto, Hawaii State Energy Office

The 8th Annual Market Transformation Conference (August 21 to 23) is still more than a month away but its not to early to register and make hotel reservations for The Curtis hotel in downtown Denver. Conference sponsorship opportunities are still available.

See Ya' in Denver.
